FAQS

What is Mundialito?

Mundialito, translated as “Little World Cup” in Spanish, is the largest, most prestigious international tournament for youth soccer players. Top players from academies worldwide come together to compete and learn about different cultures. It’s a total immersion experience into the exciting world of international futbol.

How are rosters formed?

The rosters comprise players from different US states/regions. We aim to prepare the players for an immersion experience by introducing them to other athletes worldwide.

How do we evaluate players and select players?

We evaluate and recruit players in the following ways:

- 1- Directly from our programs and/or through our coaching network.
- 2- Through our coaching network where they evaluate and recommend players based on their performance in their own environment.
- 3- Through evaluations made directly in specific cases for players interested in our international competitions scheduled upon request.
- 4- We may also observe players on their own club team for further evaluation when required.

Who is the coaching staff?

Coaching staff is selected from professional Spanish academies based in Barcelona.

FAQS

Is the trip limited to the player and their chaperone?

There is no limit to the number of family members who would like to travel with their player. We say the more, the merrier! We require one chaperone, but encourage more!

How can we find out who is on the roster?

We do not provide a list of invitees and rosters are released when we are closer to the trip.

We want this experience to be based on your own personal desire to attend and experience the culture.

Are flights included?

No, we let families organize their own flights. We will have a meeting point in the Airport on arrival day to take a bus together to the tournament hotel site. We ask families to not land later than 2 pm as we organize buses departures between 10am – 3pm.

When will the specific hotel be confirmed for our stay during the tournament?

The specific 4-star hotel for your stay should be confirmed no later than February/March 2025. We work closely with the tournaments to ensure placement in a premier location based on the options available.

How much time do the players spend with the team vs their family during the tournament?

The players will either have morning or afternoon games. In both circumstances, they will have breakfast with the team, attend their match, have a light training session before or after their game, and have lunch with their teammates. After that, they will be dismissed to spend time with their families.

FAQS

Can players and families stay off-site during the trip?

Players and guests must stay with the group. This cohesion is an essential part of the trip and helps streamline logistics for everyone.

What is the required uniform?

The uniform is included in the price and consists of two game jerseys, two game shorts, two game socks, a training top, and a warm-up jacket and pants.

What is the payment schedule?
