FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

01 What is Mundialito?

“Little World Cup” in Spanish, Mundialito is one of the world’s leading international youth tournaments—an immersive week of elite competition and global culture.

02 How are players selected?

Through our programs, trusted coaching network, direct evaluations and, when needed, observation with the player’s current club.

03 Who coaches the teams?

Professional Spanish coaches selected from established academies in Barcelona.

04 Can other family members attend?

Yes. One adult chaperone is required, but there is no limit on additional family guests. Everyone stays at the same hotel.

05 When are rosters announced?

Rosters are released closer to departure. We do not publish invitee lists; families should join for the full experience, not based on who else attends.

06 Are flights included?

No. Families arrange flights. Airport buses operate between 10 AM and 3 PM on arrival day; please land no later than 2 PM.

07 When is the hotel confirmed?

The specific 4-star hotel is expected to be confirmed by February or March 2027, based on the best options available through the tournament.

08 Team time vs. family time?

Players have team breakfast, matches, light training and team lunch. They are then released to spend the remainder of the day with their families.

09 Can families stay off-site?

No. Players and guests must stay with the group to protect team cohesion and simplify trip logistics.

10 What uniform is included?

Two match jerseys, two match shorts, two pairs of match socks, one training top, one warm-up jacket and pants.

11 What is the payment schedule?

25% upon accepting the invitation; 25% one month later; 25% two months after the first payment; final 25% three months after the first payment.

12 Cancellation and event policy?

Trip payments are non-refundable. If the event is cancelled, families receive a 70% refund unless it is rescheduled. Families may purchase travel coverage.
