

Welcome to Barcelona Training Academy! By signing up for our services, including our SMS messaging program, you agree to the following Terms & Conditions. Please read these terms carefully.

Program Name:

Barcelona Training Academy SMS Program

Program Description:

By opting in, you will receive updates, training tips, schedule reminders, and other important information related to Barcelona Training Academy programs. Message frequency will vary based on the needs of our program.

SMS Messaging Service

Opting Out:

You can cancel the SMS service at any time. To stop receiving messages, simply text "STOP" to our shortcode. Once you send "STOP," we will send a confirmation SMS acknowledging your unsubscribe status. After this confirmation, you will no longer receive messages from us. If you wish to rejoin the SMS program, you can sign up again, and we will resume sending messages to you.

Help & Support:

If you experience issues with the messaging program, you can reply with the keyword "HELP" for further assistance. For direct support, feel free to contact us at admin@barcelonatrainingacademy.com or 833-361-0112.

Carrier Liability:

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

Message and data rates may apply for both incoming and outgoing messages.

Barcelona Training Academy is not responsible for any charges incurred for text messages sent or received by your mobile device. These charges are subject to your wireless provider's plan.

Message frequency will vary depending on your level of interaction with our services.

For any questions regarding your text or data plan, please contact your wireless provider.

No Refund Policy

At Barcelona Training Academy, we have a strict no refund policy on all our training programs and international programs.

By purchasing any of our programs—whether local training sessions, international programs, tournaments, or online coaching—you agree to this policy.

We encourage all prospective players and families to carefully review the details of our programs before making a commitment. If you have any questions, our team is available to provide clarity via email or a scheduled call. We ensure that all program details are clearly communicated so you understand exactly what you are investing in.

To be clear, all sales are final, and we do not offer refunds, money-back guarantees, or trial periods for any of our programs.

When you join Barcelona Training Academy, we expect full commitment to the training and development process. Our programs are designed for dedicated players who are ready to put in the effort and trust the methodology we provide.

If you are unsure about joining, please reach out before purchasing, as no refunds will be granted under any circumstances.

Thank you for understanding our policy.
